Well, winter sure started out like the long range forecast predicted. Record cold and snow in early November. Then something changed and it all went away. We might still get a white Christmas but maybe the forecast was wrong?

Last week I just had to tweek Mother Nature a bit and get the 944 out for a run. Actually did a little Christmas shopping in it. I think that's a first. We're looking seriously at going to the Porsche Parade in French Lick next year. I saw the web site for the headquarters hotel and...wow! Nice place. Check it out on the PCA web site.

Holiday party time is coming up soon. Get your reservation in by January 10. Blackhawk gave us a deal on the price since we're such good customers. You all know what has happened to food prices. Still good for such great food. See you there?
